Our records indicate that you are not subject to OMB's Single Audit. When a potential subrecipient is not subject to a Single Audit, Subsection 200.331 ("Subrecipient Monitoring and Management/ Requirements for Pass-Thru Entities") of the Uniform Guidance \(2 CFR 200\) requires the University of Colorado Colorado Springs to evaluate the subrecipient's administrative ability to properly manage federal funds before a sub agreement can be issued.

To assist UCCS in its review of your organization, please have the appropriate person complete this questionnaire in its entirety and email the questionnaire along with any applicable documentation, to osp@uccs.edu. This form should be completed by your organization's financial officer and signed by an Authorized Official with the authority to make certifications/acknowledgments on behalf of the organization and legally bind the organization to contractual obligations. The information provided will be reviewed and you will be contacted with any questions or requests for additional information. Please note that no sub agreement can be issued until satisfactory documentation has been received, including the organization's most recent financial statements.

If you have any questions, or if your organization is subject to OMB's Single Audit, please contact osp@uccs.edu. A response to every question is required.

The subrecipient hereby certifies as follows:	Yes/No
Subrecipient's financial system is in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles
Subrecipient has the capability to identify in its accounts all federal awards, including flow- through funds, received and expended and from which federal agency they were received
Subrecipient maintains internal controls to assure federal awards are being managed in compliance with applicable laws, regulations, and the provisions of contracts, grants, and subawards
Subrecipient financial system includes budgetary controls that preclude incurring obligations in excess of (a) total funds made available under the award and (b) total funds made available for a budget cost category (e.g. personnel, travel, etc.)
Subrecipient can prepare appropriate invoices, financial reports and statements, including a schedule of expenditures by federal award
There are no outstanding audit findings that would impact UCCS funding. (If there are relevant findings, please submit a copy of the most recent report that describes the finding and the steps being taken to correct it)
Personnel who have the responsibilities of spending, managing, and accounting for the funds awarded are familiar with the applicable cost principles (OMB Circular A-21, FAR part 31.2, etc.) and are able to determine whether costs in connection with federal grants and contracts can be considered to be allocable, allowable, reasonable, and necessary
Subrecipient has adequate separation of responsibilities so that no one individual has complete authority over an entire financial transaction
Subrecipient is in compliance with applicable federal law and public policy requirements (such as law and policies governing objectivity in research, civil rights, environmental impact, debarment and suspension, lobbying with federal funds, etc.)
Subcontractor will make every effort to be in compliance with all requirements of award.
