Decision Tree for Application of Export Control Regulations

No further review for an export license is needed at this time. HOWEVER, certain transactions are prohibited by federal government sanctions and embargoes. Foreign sponsors and international persons and entities with whom you will be collaborating or engaging in transactions should undergo a restricted party screening. Additionally, Cuba, Iran, North Korea, Sudan and Syria are particular countries of concern, as they are most comprehensively controlled.

Contact the Export Compliance Officer for assistance. Version 3/16/2017